You were my favorite aunt!!!! One of very first memories of Cecil visiting us when he came home for a visit with us on leave...then there was you, so young and beautiful. I remember many visits, baby sitting with the boys, and a lot of laughter.

“ You were a wonderful mother-in-law that taught me how to make the best buttermilk biscuits, cornbread, pecan pies and many other fattening and great southern food. So many people thought that I was your daughter instead of daughter in law. Thank you for raising wonderful sons who loved their mamma. You will be missed but know how happy you are now with a healthy mind.
