“ Fr. Martin was a wonderful man, a constant friend who will always be missed, but remembered fondly.##imported-begin##Charles Roth ##imported-end##

“ Fr. Martin was a wonderful influence on my life and I will pray to him for help in the future. From Freshman year at The Abbey School to the years working with him at Camp Holy Cross he was great to be around. I will miss him and am thankful to have seen him one last time this past summer. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Fr. Martin will be missed. His smile, sense of humor and honest views will be missed. The Abbey Class of 1983 loved Fr. Martin; he had a very positive influence on us.

I was grateful for the opportunity to visit with him along with RJ Jolly, David Gray and Greg Benzmiller after Dr. Benzmiller's funeral, (who is missed and was a close friend of Fr. Martin's). I will remember Fr. Martin as he was that day with the "sparkle" in his eyes, the smile and the wonderful sense of humor. He will remain an influence to all who knew him.##imported-begin##Mike Hurtgen (Abbey '83)##imported-end##

“ To the family of Fr. Martin,

Fr. Martin was an amazing man who helped me better understand myself. I know others have made reference to the students at the Abbey calling him Moses, but we did feel all that he had a sense of "all knowing". I will always remember him as a forgiving person who always seemed to give us opportunity for change.

God Bless.....

“ I went to the abbey from 1984 to 1985. Father Martin was a great person. He was the easiest to talk to. I will miss him.##imported-begin##BRUCE HOLLOWELL##imported-end##

“ Father Martin was a Brother the last time I spoke to him. Although he was in declining health the last times I heard about him, I was also told that his wit and wisdom was unchanged. Thank you for your guidance. God Bless!##imported-begin##Martin A. Marchi##imported-end##

“ I first met "Brother Martin" in 1976 when i was a novice at Holy Cross Abbey. Marty gave us "novices" a spiritual talk on "monastic prayer and the psalms". I had that great opportunity to live with Marty in community at Holy Cross my 13+ years at Holy Cross. We taught together, laughed together!, prayed together! liveed our OSB life together!! Marty, a holy man, who had that great love for Christ, seeing Christ in the people he came in contact with. I always enjoyed our "laughs" and conversations on the phone while he was in Atlanta! "You have fought the good fight, you have run the race, Marty..May you share in that beatific vision of God's presence forever and ever"##imported-begin##Brother Raphael Vigil##imported-end##

“ I will always remember Bro Martin's kindness and sense of humor. Sometimes we referred to him as "Brother Moses", due to his long beard and his seeming ability to know everything we students were up to.##imported-begin##Mark Boland##imported-end##

“ Father Martin open m eyes to other cultures of the world. He was one of the best instructors I had at the Abbey School and he was a great human being. Rest in Peace, Marty.##imported-begin##Tony Mattson##imported-end##

“ Brother Martin was my freshman prefect and my Social Sciences teacher. Marty was my friend and co-worker on camp and school staffs. Father Martin was someone I admired and loved for his wit and spirit of rebellion. I will miss each of these people.##imported-begin##Mike Long##imported-end##

“ Dear Father Martin's family,

It is both a sad and a joyous occasion. Sad to know that you only had Martin's company for only a short while in Georgia but joyous to know that he lead a contented life knowing that he was loved by the members of his family. I will always remember Father Martin's sly, knowing smile and his booming laugh. My God bless you in your time of loss.
