“ Mr. Gonzalez was just an amazing teacher. I thought I would go to high school and come back to middle school at the end of the year and greet my former teachers. But knowing I can't say hello to Mr. Gonzalez really struck a nerve with me. Lots of love to the family.

“ *Mr. Gonzalez was my daughter Fallon's favorite teacher. His kindness and compassion for his students and spark of humor was a bright spot to her day. She loved his class. He was the kind of teacher who the kids will always remember. Bless your family. 🙏

“ Hey, Sophie.
It's Brianna. You probably don't remember who your old 1st grade and Crabapple Academy friend was. Anyway, I am so so sorry about your Dad's death. It should never have happened. I really don't know what it's like, because I've never lost someone that close to me before, but I hate when these things happen. I am sorry beyond words. I'm sure he was an amazing man, just like his daughter.
I'm sorry,
Brianna Wilgus

“ Mr Gonzalez was a wonderful teacher and a very kind man. He encouraged my son to embrace his intelligence and not take the the easy way out in school. He was one of Cameron's favorite teachers.
He most certainly left a life long impression on him, as well as a genuine appreciation of the importance of working hard and valuing education.

“ Mr Gonzalez was one of my sons favorite teachers. He truly cared about his students and his community. He went above and beyond with every interaction and fostered my sons love of Spanish. He will be truly missed but not forgotten in the hearts of the students, parents who had the honor to know him.

“ Fernando was a gentle soul. He loved teaching 6th graders. He loved his culture and family. Often he spoke about his children and their growth. His laugh was welcome and genuine. Many people will remember Fernando for his kindness and soft-spoken way. Thank you, Fernando, for your friendship.

“ Mr Gonzalez will be remembered as always having a friendly hello and conversation. He remembered my daughter who was his student 4 years after teaching her, and always asked about her. A kind soul, he will be missed. We pray for his children and family that they find comfort in the difficult time ahead.

“ Mr. Gonzalez will always hold a special place in my daughter Marisa's heart!! His support, encouragement and sense of humor made her first year at middle school a very positive one. In a sense, he took her under his wing and kept her motivated and "in line" that year. And even thru her 7th grade year has continued to watch over her and let her know that he supports her and believes in her. He even took time out his schedule to bring his daughter to watch Marisa perform in a musical last year - which meant a lot to her. And I'm quite certain he had the same impact on many other students. We will always be grateful to him. He will be missed but not forgotten!!
