Frances Richardson Black, formerly of Commerce, Georgia, died April 9, 2015. She is survived by her devoted husband of 66 years, Andrew Parks (A.P.) Black. She will lovingly be remembered by her two daughters and sons-in-law; Carol (Carper) and Charlie Langford, of Gainesville, Georgia; Ann and Bob Coley of Hendersonville, NC; granddaughter, Erica Flory and her husband Kyle and their two children, Sean and Bethany of Pineville, NC. Her unwavering faith and positive outlook on life helped her graciously accept the diagnosis of Alzheimer's. In lieu of flowers we think our mom would suggest when you see a perfect opportunity, perform a random act of kindness and perhaps it will be paid forward over and over; or donate to the charity nearest to your heart; or Aberdeen Place Hospice, 700 Old Roswell Lakes Pkwy, Ste. 110, Roswell, GA 30076 who took such wonderful care of our Mom.

“ I remember sitting on the front porch with her and AP. After some of her great dinners her and Granny had prepared. I use to love her iced tea. She was a caring beautiful person and a great aunt. She will be missed and thought of often..

*Love,
Bill Richardson*

“ Frances was a member of my Sunday School class at Wieuca Road Baptist Church. I have missed A. P. and Frances since they moved from the area. I've enjoyed visiting with them more recently. I may have been the last visitor to Frances. I saw her Wednesday afternoon and had prayer with her - she did not respond. I'm glad I got to see her then. God bless all of you.
