“ As a young child, I remember my granddad talking about Frances and what a wonderful person she was. He always saw her at Roswell Bank and would not deal with anyone else there. My prayers are with her loved ones during the following days. Faye Buice Jackson

“ This beautiful lady will be missed by all of Roswell. When our family moved to Roswell in 1975, she was "Roswell". She was always a delight to work with at the Bank, and she was always willing to help you with any question you might have about things pertaining to the city. She was our "go to" person of knowledge.

*Rest in Peace Frances.
