

Mr. Frank James Cunning, Jr.

July 25, 1932 - March 13, 2016

Francis (Frank) James Cunning Jr., 83, formally of Bemus Point, NY, passed away at his home in Roswell, GA on March 13, 2016. Frank was born in Mount Vernon, NY on July 25, 1932. In 1954, he earned a degree in Business and Marketing from Fordham University in New York City where he enjoyed radio broadcasting and Ram football. After graduating, he married Margaret (Peggy) Dougherty in 1955. He served in the U.S. Army at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, TX in 1956. Frank, Peggy, and their first daughter moved back to the New York City area where he worked for Colgate-Palmolive and Thomas J. Lipton. The family of six moved to western New York in 1967 where Frank worked for Welch Foods until his move to the Dial Corporation in Phoenix, AZ. During his career he held memberships in the Arizona World Trade Association, Arizona Trade Market, and the International Advertising Association. He also taught advertising part time for many years at Jamestown Community College.

Frank enjoyed his family, traveling, boating on Chautauqua Lake, symphony music, and reading.

He is survived by his children Kathleen Scodeller (Terry), Nancy Turner (Curtis), Christine Carlson (Robert), Thomas Cunning (Violeta), and Frances Hartz (Brian), grandchildren Cameron Scodeller, Christopher Scodeller, Natalie Gilley (Will), Curt Turner, Derek Carlson (Lauren), Brett Carlson, Helen Cunning Reynolds (James), David Cunning (Ashley), and two great grandchildren.

Frank was preceded in death by his wife Margaret (Peggy) in 2013. He missed her every day.

The family extends a special thank you to Regency Hospice and Golden Home Services in Roswell, GA

Arrangements are under the direction of Northside Chapel Roswell. No formal service will be held. A family gathering will take place at a later date.
