“ I have so many wonderful memories of Daddy Quince When my own parents were falling apart he and Mama Jean filled a spot for me. There are things they taught me I still do today. He had a wonderful sense of humor. We used to watch Hee Haw and Porter Wagoner show. We used to tease him about crushing on Dolly, I used to tell him my dad was a Loretta guy. One thing I remember him doing while we were watching a Braves game, the broadcast was interrupted and he got up and stood next to the TV and Mama Jean said “what are you doing?I and he said “it says to please stand by”. I thought he was so funny. He made an indelible mark on my life and he gave me a sister. He once told me he wanted to date my aunts In high school and that was before Mama Jean, but if he had there wouldn't be a Teresa.

“ Franko My adopted Daddy I loved him to pieces and my heart is broken but to know he is in heaven makes me happy . He always like to tell me what to do from gardening to making corn bread so it wouldn't crumble . He was a GREAT CHRISTIAN MAN and his smile lit up the room . I had the pleasure of taking care of him the past 2 years and especially the past 2 weeks Rest Easy Franko and see you again someday HUGS 🤗
