

Geneva Reece Dangar

September 17, 1927 - December 30, 2025

Geneva Reece Dangar, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend, passed away on December 30, 2025, at the age of 98.

She was born Geneva Mae Reece in Roswell, Georgia, to the late Wade Oscar Reece and

Ella Mae Foster Reece. Geneva graduated from Milton High School and, a few years later, married Leonard Lloyd Dangar. Together, they made their home in Roswell, where they lovingly raised their family and later enjoyed life as grandparents.

Geneva began her career working for First National Bank of Atlanta, then C&S Bank. She had a deep love for children and dedicated more than 40 years of her life as a teacher at Young Life Academy.

Known for her kindness and welcoming spirit, Geneva had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to laugh. She cherished family gatherings and enjoyed spending time at the lake, traveling, gardening, playing cards, listening to gospel music, and water skiing. She also dearly loved her faithful Shih Tzu companion, Biscuit, who was by her side for 18 years.

Geneva's legacy lives on through her children, Steven Lloyd Dangar and

Dana Wade Dangar

(Rebecca); and her three grandchildren, Ryan Carson Dangar, Stephanie Dangar Brackeen, and Matthew Dangar and four great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her siblings, Joel Lamar Reece, Eloise Reece Phillips, and Laverne Reece Bates.

A memorial service will be held Tuesday, January 6, at 1:00 p.m. at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Georgia. The family will receive friends at the same location on Monday, January 5, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Interment will follow at Green Lawn Cemetery in Roswell.

“ We want to say a heart felt thank you to you, Ms. Geneva Dangar, for all the wonderful years of devotion to our school (Young Life Academy). Ms. Geneva was kind and loving. Her love for the children was felt by everyone and we appreciate her 47 years of service (1971-2018).

Geneva was involved with Young Life Academy from the very beginning. Starting in a small historic house in Roswell (old Maggie Mae's Restaurant), Geneva was one of Young Life Academy's first employees. Geneva also worked at both the Norcross Street and the current 90 Woodstock Road locations.

Geneva was known by the kids as the "marshmallow lady" because she would hand out mini marshmallows at the end of the day to all the kids in the class rooms. Always smiling....always happy...Ms. Geneva was gracious in every situation. She will be truly missed and we consider it a joy to have known her. We will truly miss you Ms. Geneva.
