“ We are so saddened by the passing of George Camp. The Camp family welcomed us into their family when we became neighbors on West Road in 1983 - inviting us to share in their gatherings, birthdays and holidays. He treasured his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren as they were his constant source of pride and joy.

May you remember his strength in the days to come. By living to the age of 95, following the passing of his beloved wife, exemplifies his love of life and family.

George will live on in all of our memories.

*Love,
