

Mr. George G. Chenggis

April 26, 1928 - August 23, 2020

George G. Chenggis passed away Sunday, August 23, 2020 at the age of 92. He lived a full life as a son, husband, father and grandfather. George was preceded in death by his parents, Gus and Tulla (Lamis) Chenggis both from Tripoli Greece and his younger brothers, Bobby and Andy Chenggis. Also preceded in death by his loving wife of 61 years Carolyn Chenggis. He was the father to three children: Craig Chenggis, Cathy and Carla Chenggis. He adored all his grandchildren: Chris Christopher (1983-2012), Adam Christopher, Cory Chenggis (1988-2017), Cody Chenggis, Alexandria Summerlin, Keaton Summerlin and Connor Sweeney. He leaves behind nieces and many cousins whom he loved dearly. George was a self-motivated man. He graduated from Emory University then went on to complete his two years Master of Laws in 18 months, Magma Cum Laude, second in his class from Woodrow Wilson College of Law in 1955 all while working full time in the Atlanta Sears advertising department producing some of their major ads. During his six years at Sears, he took two years military leave (1951-1952) to serve in the United States Army where he worked in the Judge Advocate General's office. This is where he found his passion for law. George practiced law in Atlanta for over 60 years. He finished an amazing career well respected by his clients, friends, coworkers and his peers. George Chenggis loved his family, loved the law and loved his Lord. This wonderful man will be missed by all.
