

George Joseph Rocco, Jr.

November 18, 1943 - April 29, 2008

George J. Rocco, Jr. of Alpharetta, GA passed away unexpectedly Tuesday morning. Born in Ellwood City, PA, he was the son of the late George and Antoinette Rocco. George was a high school teacher and coach in Phoenixville, PA for 35 years. George spent his life working with the youth around him. He tried to instill hard work, discipline, and a never quit attitude in all who he touched. He tried to help many pursue further education and improve their lives. To his friends and family he was known to do everything possible to help those who he cared about, never asking anything in return.

Surviving are his wife, Carole, and 2 sons, Louis and David, sister Phyllis Savor and brother Frank Rocco. An immediate family ceremony will be held in Alpharetta, GA. Please make any memorial contributions to your local youth athletic organization or the American Heart Association.

“ So saddened to hear of Mr.Rocco's passing. He was truly an inspiration in my life. I came home from work today and told my husband that Mr. Rocco died and he said, "he was your driver ed teacher". Do you know how many things that he said to me that have stayed with me thru out my life? (Like,"never swerve for animals, they'll always get out of your way!")He was a huge encouragement to all of us at Pville. In later years, when I ran into him, he was still a source of encouragement. I'm so grateful I had him in my life. Deep sympathy to you all###imported-begin###muriel rowlands bickhart###imported-end##
