“ Diane & family:

So sorry to hear of the loss of such a great friend. We have many wonderful memories of the many times we have spent together sharing Jerry's big heart, love of life, and great sense of humor that always caught us off guard. I'm sure he has touched so many other people in the same way he did with us. We feel richer in our own lives having known Jerry for the short period of time that we did. Thanks for sharing him with us.##imported-begin##Jay Roberson & Sheila ##imported-end##

“ You have my deepest sympathy Brian and family - I enjoyed your dad so much, and looked forward to his visits to the Training Center at Jackson. You should have seen him, when I told him, he could sit on my Harley !! He finally did, with some coaching ! He was a great man, I'm deeply sadden. He gave me a tour of AGCO Duluth, when I paid a surprise visit. May Gods blessings be with you and your family.
