“ Dear Brenda, Kate, and Amanda,
-Mr 'GQ' was a special friend, colleague, mentor and Friend. I was so very lucky to have met and worked with him. He will be forever missed and can never be replaced. He was such a positive person and always made me laugh. Godspeed Jerry##imported-begin##Chef James Brisson##imported-end##

“ To Jerry's family - I am so sad to learn of Jerry's passing. He & I met in 1988 - a typical 'sales call' when I was with Chili's. He left his Cross pen (with his name etched on it) in my office that day and after he duplicated & produced the Carribbean Chicken & Chicken Fried Chicken & sales were brisk, I asked if that had been a 'sales ploy' on his part. He laughed that wonderful laugh and said 'no, but since it worked so well I think I should order a gross of them'. Jerry was such a special person - an incredibly knowledgeable industry go-to guy & such a caring & genuine individual. I often called him when I needed his industry expertise on poultry. He will be missed in the industry but I know not nearly as much as by his loving family whom he adored. Cling to your wonderful memories of such a good man.##imported-begin##Julie Reid##imported-end##

“ Brenda

This morning we put the Tam's on the stereo for Jerry. I remember back to his 60th birthday when I asked him about retirement to which he replied, "retire,heck, I'm still trying to figure out what I'm going to do when I grow up!"

Typical Jerry, we'll all miss you buddy,God bless.##imported-begin##Warren and Linda Kenniston##imported-end##

“ It is such a shock to learn about Jerry's passing. He was responsible for my career at Hardee's by paving the way to hire me in 1978 to work with him in the R & D department at Hardee's. I fondly remember playing golf and going to his home in Rocky Mount.

My deepest and sincere condolences.##imported-begin##Ron Honeycutt##imported-end##

“ *Brenda, Kate and Amanda,
My heart goes out to y'all, for like the rest, I grieve the loss of my best friend. The Anchor of the Four Wolves lives on in our hearts; a void never to be filled...a "Number Retired!" God's blessing to a wonderful family, whose Son, Husband, Brother, Cousin, Schoolmate...HERO...lives on and shines in us all.
Amen.##imported-begin##Phil Brown##imported-end##*

“ From the 9th grade, through numerous school and YMCA basketball experiences, being asked to go to Duke basketball games with the Lingerfelt family, to being college roommates, double dating at ASU and marrying roommates, to both contributing to the world of food science, to the last few years when the Four Wolves started a yearly golf outing, Jerry will always be a deep and lasting part of our(my)lives(life). There is no pain like the loss of a dear friend. Jerry, you leave this world much better because you brought so much happiness to so many. You will live on in our hearts and in our memories. Tell Otis, Ricky, Buddy, the Big Bopper, and all the great artists you helped keep alive for all of us that they now have a true angel joining them. Save a front row seat for me!

“ Junior High, Senior High, College, all the way to today. What a blessing to have had you as a true friend, "GQ". I will miss you and your unique laugh, your cup was always at least half full outlook and your ability to always find the silver lining in any situation.

Until we meet again, my friend.

To Jerry's family and wide circle of friends, my sincere sympathy and deepest condolences.###imported-begin###Don Sprinkle###imported-end##

“ Brenda, Kate, Amanda, Jeff.....Jerry will be missed badly by all who were lucky enough to know him. We have known him since 1967, and he was an usher in our wedding. He left us way too early, and it leaves a huge void in all of our lives. Our prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Randy & Cynthia Broome##imported-end##

“ I was certainly shocked when I learned of Jerry's passing. He will always be remembered as a dear friend with lots of great memories. I express to his family my deepest sympathy. Although we saw little of each other after attending NC State, save for the reunions, he will always be remembered by his smile and great disposition.

“ Dear Brenda and Family

There are no words that can be said that can lift your sorry or pain but know that God has his hands on you all and our prayers are with you.

Jerry was a very special person and was loved by so many. Hollis talks alot about their years and times they have spent together. We laugh alot about his "ducks" and the Goat that was comng soon! We past a pasture of goats this afternoon and it was sad but funny at the same time.

Brenda if you need anything please pick up the phone! Time, friends, family and most of all God will get you through the days ahead.

We look foward to seeing you Thurs. and Friday.

Prayers and Love to you all
