“ Jerry first came to our Classics Car shop in his GTR informing me of what a great engineering marvel it was. I quickly agreed, but let him know we only restore and customize American Classics. He proceeded to tell me he wanted us to restore a 53 Cadillac coupe he was planning to buy. After many discussion and planning sessions we began the process of "restomodding" his 53 Caddy coupe (which he was able to do some "cruising" in before we started). The guys at the shop and I will miss him coming around and sharing his positive outlook on life, humor, and love for Classic Cars. He had a unique quality about him that we all appreciated.##imported-begin##Gary Higginbotham##imported-end##

“ From the very first evening I met Jerry in 2005 while interviewing with Scientific Games until the last time I saw him in the office he consistently treated me like a life-long friend. Whenever Jerry was in the office I could always count on him to stop by to talk about work and I could also always expect that as soon as business was handled the conversation would quickly progress towards to the best restaurants, his newest card trick and of course above all else, cars! When I saw him coming I knew there was a good chance I might hear him say, “Have you seen the car comparison of the new GTR on YouTube? No? Well then you’ve got to pull it up.” Next thing I knew, the entire accounting department is overhearing a car comparison as Jerry would tune the speaker’s up to 100%.

I will miss seeing his smile standing in my doorway as well as cherish the conversations we had over the years. I am a better person for having known Jerry.##imported-begin##Robert Elliott##imported-end##

“ I am better for knowing you - one of the best storytellers I've ever met. Your knowledge of restaurants, in any city we ever visited, was unrivaled. I will miss the weekly updates on what you've done to make your car faster than mine. Rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Nick DeAngelo##imported-end##

“ Jerry was one of the really great people I came to know. it is hard to believe that 16 years ago we first worked together and now he is gone, because he was one of those that you would never want to go. He was loved my many and will be missed by even more. My thoughts and prayers are with C.L., the children and all his family.##imported-begin##Jerry Lawrence##imported-end##

“ Jerry will be truely missed by everyone that ever knew him. For me it was the stories we shared from the Autotote days and his time grewing up in Yonkers which was our special connection. I could never thank Jerry enough for stepping up and telling our customers jokes during marathon meetings. God bless.##imported-begin##Brennen Lawrence##imported-end##

“ Godspeed Jerry. I thank you for taking time with a newbie at Scientific Games to teach me the business models, learn the factors of what makes us successful, and keeping the discussion entertaining despite the drool content (finance).

You will be missed.##imported-begin##Mike Brandsma##imported-end##
