“ ...Germaine became part of my family over 20 years ago, she married by brother Todd. Our family spent a lot of time tog ether...birthdays, holidays, camping, hiking, and more. Germaine always brought laughter and adventure to any gathering. Seems like every time I saw her she had changed her hair style .... short, long, blonde, brown, you name it and with just a smile she looked beautiful with every style choice. Several years later lifes uncertainitys became to much, Todd and Germaine's marriage ended. That did not affect my feelings for Germaine, nor did it for my parents, so we continued to talk and visit together... I'm not saying our relationship was perfect. What I am saying is, I thank God for the honor of knowing Germaine and tearfully I thank God for ending her suffering, granting her peace and calling Germaine home. I'll carry her smiles, love, and laughter forever with me. Hugs to all those with hurting hearts extra hugs to Tim, Danielle, Ryan, Teale, and James.##imported-begin##michelle##imported-end##

“ Dear Danielle, Ryan and Teale,
I am your 2nd cousin and grew up with your mother on the same street. She was younger than I but we were close at one time. I watched her grow up and yet I don't know her as her friends have spoken of her here. Each one spoke of her humor, her love for fun and laughter and the message came through loud and clear. Your mother was a joyful gift to those close to her and I pray you will remember all those wonderful times...before the hard times. I live in Tulsa OK but will be thinking of you through this most difficult time and maybe we can get to know each other one day. Until then, I pray you will take the good things she gave you of herself and dwell on those.##imported-begin##Linda Fehl##imported-end##

“ Danielle, Ryan and Teale,
I loved your Mom! She was so much fun and we had lots of good times together. I'm so sorry that you had to watch her suffer with cancer. She is in God's company now and isn't suffering any more. I hope the hurt and pain you are feeling now will be replaced with smiles and laughs as you remember the fun memories of your loving Mom. I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers.
Love you,

“ I've known Germaine for almost three years. We shared some really good laughs and she always had a very positive attitude even through a lot of tough times. We both had a love for the DAWGS and couldn't wait to catch up on game talk on Monday mornings of football season. She was truly a good spirit and will be missed by many. Love ya germaine. God bless and may you now rest in peace and soar with the angels.###imported-begin##Nan Tolbert###imported-end##
