“ Trudy was truly my 'sister by another mother.' We've been a part of each other's lives since our Freshman year at UGA. We've raised our families together, and been there for each other through all of life's blessings and trials. I count as the best gift I ever gave the fact that I introduced Trudy to Pope, her wonderful husband and soulmate. She is in Heaven now, but Trudy's warm, loving spirit remains within the hearts of all who knew her.

“ Trudy had the most wonderful laugh, and was very generous. Whenever we got together she was happy to see everyone and loved sharing with others. She was also incredibly supportive with other people's crisis, and would do anything that she could to help. She was a lovely person and we will all miss her.
