“ Dear Randy and Jean, so sorry to hear about Gil. He was truly a good man. I have so many great memories of him as I am sure you do as well. But he just had an advance reservation ahead of our own and we will see him someday soon. Take joy and hope in that promise.

“ It is hard to say goodbye to dear friends, but circumstances make it easier when you know where they are going and whom they are going to be with. We will miss you Gil, but we will be here to continue to visit and have breakfast with Jean. Our prayers go out to the remaining family, Jean, Randy, Martha, Chris and Ray. We love you all and pray for God's grace to strengthen you at this time. Love you all.
