“ Linda, Sorry it is so late of my signing the guest book. But I just wanted to let you know how sorry i am about your mother's passing, but i know that she is in heaven waiting for the rest of us.I used to be neighbor's with them when we lived on Brook street and she would bake me and my family pound cake's. I could have never asked for a better neighbor and friend. She will be forever loved and missed. thought's and prayer's to you and your family, may god bless.###imported-begin##Susan Swofford###imported-end##

“ She was very special to our family. Tillman would not be a christian today had it not been for the influence of Gladys amd Hiram. They were grandparents to our boys. We saw her when we came for the reunion in July, and she got to meet our boys wives and our grandson. When Tillman told me she had died I could not be sad. She is in heaven with Papa Hiram and beginning to receive her rewards. She was very special to our lives and please know you are all in our prayers .

Love
