

Mr. Glenn Matthew Mihich

January 19, 1985 - December 8, 2014

It is with profound sadness that the family of Glenn Matthew Mihich announce his passing. Glenn was born on January 19, 1985 in NYC and died at his Brookhaven home on December 8, 2014. Glenn's passing has left his family and friends heartbroken and with a great void which we can only fill with our many happy memories. Glenn was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, George and Dorothy McCauley; aunt, Karen Mihich. Glenn is survived by his parents Fran and Ed Mihich, his twin brother Paul and younger brother Brian. He leaves behind a very loving family: his grandparents Ed and Joan Mihich; aunts and uncles, Pat and Jeanne Mihich, Tom and Kathleen Mihich, Richard Mihich and Mary Mc Cauley; cousins Kerry Molinelli, Laurence and Angela Molinelli, and Kevin and Kristen Mihich. Glenn spent the first 8 years of his childhood in New York, Ohio and New Jersey. His family moved to Roswell in 1993 and Glenn soon developed into a true son of Georgia. In life, Glenn loved his family, legions of friends, his music, especially Widespread Panic, and his sports. His great smile will be a wonderful and warm memory for all who he knew and loved him. Rest in heavenly peace. In lieu of flowers please make donations to Bereavement Ministry of St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church 11330 Woodstock Rd. “ Just heard the disturbing news. Words are difficult to come by in attempting to make sense of such things, and even then tend to sound woefully inadequate. Simply be assured that you and yours are in our thoughts and prayers...

“ Fran, Ed, and boys- we are so sad to hear about Glenn. The Mihich boys were such a part of our lives during Ryan's middle school years. We'll never forget a snowy weekend at the cabin with Glenn. Those boys sledded all afternoon! All those soccer practices, games, and tournaments were good times and Glenn was part of it. We will keep you in our prayers.
