“ Jere was part of the heart and especially the soul of the League of California Cities where I worked and was privileged to know both him and Madeleine for many years. His genuinely good heart was reflected in his smile, the twinkle in his eyes and his kindness to all. He doesn't need to be afforded sainthood in death, as he already achieved that status in life. Although my relationship to the Melo's was strictly work related; I'm sure thousands of Californians share my feelings that this is not just a communal loss, but rather a personal loss. My sympathy extends to Jere's family, friends and colleagues throughout the state; the world. RIP Jere. Liz Birmingham, Sacramento, CA.##imported-begin##Oscar##imported-end##

“ To the Fiddymment Family: Gordon came to work for us at WorldCom/MCI/Verizon during our time of restatement and I got to know what a kind, caring and hard working man he was. He was gentle, witty and a joy to be around. My most sincere condolences to his family during this sad time.##imported-begin##Joan G Payne##imported-end##

“ Gail, Grant, Glenna, Garrett:
Our hearts are heavy and sad, but we rejoice in the knowledge of God's eternity. Gordon was so special to so many of us. We will always remember our days on the "Saints", Wills Park, Milton HS and so much more. I still have the season stats he kept. Our prayers and love are with you all.###imported-begin##Danny and Barbara Philpot###imported-end##

“ *To the Fiddymment Family,
So sorry to hear of your loss. I had both the honor and pleasure to have known Gordon through the baseball community at Milton High School. During that time, I always appreciated Gordon's sense of humor and all the detailed stats he remembered on various teams and players. But what stood out MOST to me, was his commitment to being there for his children both in his actions and words. I will be remembering you all this week and in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Bill Ewing##imported-end##*
