

Grace L. Hyatt

December 5, 1910 - February 27, 2011

HYATT - Mrs. Grace Lorentzson Hyatt died peacefully in her sleep Sunday, February 27, 2011, in Alpharetta, Georgia. She is survived by her three sons, Tom and his wife Polly of Alpharetta, Ken and his wife Anne of Tampa, and Wayne of Atlanta, all of whom joined in celebrating their mother's 100th birthday in December. In addition to her sons, she is survived by 5 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. A native of Brunswick, Mrs. Hyatt taught high school in both south and north Georgia, and left a legacy of men and women for whom she opened a new world of literature and poetry. While teaching in Canton, Georgia, Mrs. Hyatt met her husband, the late Spurgeon Hyatt, to whom she was devoted throughout their well over 50 years together. A member of the First Baptist Church of Canton, Georgia, for over 50 years, for the last fifteen years she was a member of Alpharetta Presbyterian Church. Her faith and her compassion marked her life, and she used a quick wit and ready smile to enrich all those who came in contact with her. Over the years she received many honors and much recognition; however, she would say that one's knowledge that a life has been well lived and that one has touched many people for good was indeed the best reward of all. In this she was singularly successful and will be so remembered. This endures as all else passes away. In lieu of flowers, it is Mrs. Hyatt's wish that contributions be made to the Tuberous Sclerosis Alliance (www.tsalliance.org) in her memory and in honor of her grandson Ben Hyatt. Join her family in a celebration of her life and the service of witness to the resurrection at Alpharetta Presbyterian Church, 180 Academy Street, Alpharetta 30004, Friday, March 4 at 10:30 AM and at the reception to follow. To God be the glory. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory of Roswell is assisting the Hyatt family.
