

Mr. Gregory Kent Murrey

February 15, 1955 - August 29, 2015

Gregory Kent Murrey, known as Ace to his grandchildren, went home to his Lord on Saturday, August 29, 2015. He was a beloved son, husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was a quiet, but enthusiastic man who did not go timidly through life. He was passionate about his family and friends. They found him to be a compassionate and outgoing man of honor; always supportive and reliable.

He was a lover of all music. He found sustenance and delight in the beauty of music, whether it was James Brown, Bruce Springsteen, Alvin Lee or his beloved blues. His musical tastes were as varied as his friends; interesting and eclectic.

His extended family was a source of great joy. He loved being able to work with his father and son, happy in the interchange of the generations. An unusual man, he listened to his wife of 38 years and grew from her wisdom. Nothing brought him greater happiness than playing with his grandchildren, Madeleine and Hayes. A vigorous and happy man, he delighted in boisterous childhood play with them. His son and daughter benefited from his kind, calm advice. Greg always felt that his son, Jason, and his daughter, Abby, were his greatest achievements.

All his friends and family were enriched and delighted while living life with him. On his passing, he desired to become a part of our mother earth. He will be buried in an ecologically green manner, in a gentle, peaceful field. Our memories of Greg warm our hearts and make us smile. He has crossed over the River and rests under the shade of trees.

Greg is survived by his wife, Laura; son Jason and his wife, Kasey, their children Madeleine and Hayes; his daughter, Abby Davis and her husband, Keith; his parents, Bill and Thelma Murrey; sister, Pamela Murrey and an extended family.

Greg will be interred Wednesday, September 2, 2015 at 11:00am at Milton Fields, 1150 Birmingham Road, Milton, GA 30004. A memorial service celebrating his life will be held at Birmingham United Methodist Church, 15770 Birmingham Highway, Milton, GA 30004 at 2:00pm on Thursday, September 3, 2015. Donations may be made to the Atlanta Braves Foundation in Greg's memory.

“ Greg and I shared the same birthday, same year, and had several birthday lunches over the years. I always enjoyed those luncheons as Greg was a joy to be around.

I meant to call him earlier this year for a special lunch as we turned 60 but had not gotten around to it. I am very saddened by that fact; just goes to show you, don't put off seeing your friends and sharing life with them. It matters and you never know when you will not have the opportunity again.

Here's to you, Greg!!!

“ My daughter and I wish to offer our condolences to your family and friends. We were in the family seating with the Yankees. I wanted his family to know that we were not crying, but praying as hard as we could that God would spare his life. Our faith teaches us to reach our hands out and pray over this person. God had other plans for Greg. Our prays then changed to praying for his family. May God give you peace and be with you always.

“ Greg and I were classmates at NHS where we frequently played poker at Nelson's house. Greg played basketball on my church team. My deceased wife Susan was a "little sister" for Sigma Nu. I last saw Greg at Frank's house about 15 yrs. ago and will remember that last time with him. I know if I had seen him just last week he would have said "Hey Buddy" just as if we had always been closer over the years. Greg was a great guy and very happy and proud of his family and the life he had made with all of you. Now, the memories live on and they are good! God Bless you all.

My thoughts and prayers are with your family. Greg was always coming by to see me at the 755 Club and joking with me. He was a friendly outgoing man who loved baseball and the Braves. My heart is with your family.
