“ *Pam & Kristin,
Sorry to hear of Greg's death. I did not make it to the 50th reunion but a classmate forwarded the information to me. Sounds like Greg lived a full life and was well loved. What more can anyone ask for? Know the coming months will be difficult for your family. Grief is an unpredictable journey and a constant companion for a long time. But it is the price we pay for loving, so a pain that must be borne. Wishing you comfort and peace at this difficult time.*

“ Dear Pam & Family,
Greg was like a brother to me. We had a fantastic time at the 50th Class Reunion. I am so grateful that I got the chance to see him and relive old times. Pam, you said in your email to the class that you wished that you could have been a member of our class. YOU ARE. Anyone connected to our classmates (spouses, kids, etc.) are considered part of our class. Here's hoping you can make the 55th reunion (consider this an invitation!!)
We are all better people for having known Greg. God bless you in this most difficult time.
Love,
