“ My dear friend, Greg . . . I can't convince myself that I won't be seeing you at Church again, you were such a vital person to have in the lives of all who knew and loved you . . . as a son, a relative, a friend and as the loving father to Charlie and Suzanne that you were , who so many mourn for today for their great loss. All who had the privilege of knowing you as a dear friend will always mourn our loss, too, of the fun-loving, caring, devout Christian and simply good man in every respect, Greg, and we shall miss you more than we can express. God's speed, my friend.

“ Dear Thomson Family,
I was a colleague of Greg's at SunTrust. He was a friend and mentor. I am saddened to hear of his passing and very sorry for your loss. I loved the stories of his travels and community service in Romania. He tried to teach me some words (epic fail as he would laugh and say to me as I tried to pronounce some of the words and sing some of the songs he shared). He also would share on occassion "special" beverages from his travels for me to share with my husband. We loved it and thanked him for his generosity. I will always remember him as the funny, life loving, community activist and a giving, beautiful soul of a man he was. He will be missed but never forgotten. May God be with you all as you keep his memories and spirit alive in your hearts and minds.

With sincerest Sympathy,
Sharon Owens

“ Dear Family-

My deepest condolences to you and the children, Charlie and Suzzane. Greg and I were close at work and outside work. He was such a wonderful friend, we became friends immediately with his bubbly personality and that smile and laugh.....I will miss dearlyour our talks....My name is Bobby Weber - with IBM, but Greg and I worked together for years at SunTrust....He was getting his life back together and was so happy this last year...I helped him in decorating the man cave as he called it... he was so much fun...I would surely be there if I could and had known, something made me feel I needed to check on him the other day, as always did texting or calling and was so upset to hear this news from Mark.

*GREG IS ALL I CAN SAY IS I WILL MISS YOU MY OLE BUD!!!!
You touch a lot of peoples hearts... you lite up a room when you walked in with your Spirit.....*

Goodbye my friend, I will miss you and our ideas of you coming here to Colorado this spring to enjoy the mountains.....

My Regrets...

“ Dear Thomson Family:

It is with utter sadness that I send this note. I just learned today of Greg's passing via a mutual SunTrust colleague. Disbelief of this news doesn't even begin to describe the utter shock & sadness I feel regarding the news of Greg. Greg and many of us worked together and were very close friends at SunTrust the past 5+ years. Greg had a wonderful sense of humor, and an extremely kind, giving heart. Greg loved his friends, parents, and family so much. Greg was always willing to help others, whether it was a project at work or a friend who needed help painting their home. Greg was truly a "one-of-a-kind" kinda guy and he will TRULY be missed. Still in disbelief. My deepest condolences to your family, and to those of us who were great friends with, and truly appreciated Greg. He will Greatly be missed!

“ Special Note to his kids, please know he was so proud of you and spoke of you often. I worked with him at Deloitte on a few projects on the East coast and West coast and I can assure you (based upon our many conversations), you were in his thoughts day and night. He was so proud to be your father :). Grace and peace to you
