“ Wahl family,

Please accept my condolences and prayers following the passing of Greg. We worked as colleagues at Praxair/Union Carbide and I knew Greg to be a gentleman and kind to everyone. Many of his friends here in Indiana are saddened, but are finding comfort in sharing uplifting stories of fond memories knowing Greg.

Please accept my deepest condolences. I can barely remember a rehearsal or concert when Greg was not there. he was always ready with a smile and good conversation, but above all he was there to support his family. I wish you well and look forward to seeing you soon.

“ Dear Ellen, Mark, Catherine and all of Greg’s loving siblings and extended family - It is with such sadness that Jeni and I express our condolences to you all regarding Greg’s passing. He was far too young. But know that Greg lived his life as the will of his Heavenly Father. And his work is now done. Well done good and faithful servant. Greg was a blessing to so many over the years. We cherished his friendship, humorous spirit, and deep spirituality. I know that he touched so many in numerous ways. The years and distances may have kept us apart, but he knew how to stay in touch. His southern hospitality will be missed. As well as his reaching out on a daily basis with morning devotionals. It was the first thing I always checked in my personal emails, and then made sure I forwarded to others for their benefit. They truly helped me and many others especially during our pandemic limitations. You will be missed buddy. Praying your journey to your eternal reward was a short one. And I look forward to seeing you in heaven ❤️✝️

“ It was always so reassuring to have Greg at orchestra rehearsals and concerts. Such a cheerful, supportive man to his family, and always with a friendly, helping hand if the orchestra needed anything. It's so sad to say words like this about someone who left us so early. Thinking of Ellen and family in this sad time.

“ I will always remember Greg and admired what a devoted dad and husband-always coming to rehearsals, performances, conventions and parties for the ABS and BDAA. Often working away on his notebook while listening to rehearsals. Always enjoyed his presence and hanging out at dinners or parties. May his memory be a blessing. Love to all his family and friends at this sad time.

“ Greg was an amazing and supportive father and husband who shared his family's interest in the arts and music. He attended many rehearsals and concerts of the Atlanta Balalaika Society Orchestra just to help his wife and children to engage their interest in the orchestra and Russian Folk Music. It was always good to see his smiling face and to here his positive comments about the music and members of the orchestra, Eternal Memory!
