“ My precious friend Cherokee (we had nicknames for each other) . . . we've been friends virtually all our lives, and now it's time to say Goodbye for awhile .

You've always been there for me when I needed some good, solid down-to-earth advise, and when I needed a good laugh. You never let me down . . . and I can't imagine that you ever let anyone down when they came to you for help .

I love you and will miss you more than I can say, but I'm happy this morning knowing that you're with your parents and your sister again, and all's well with you now.

Love, always,
