

Mr. H. D. Bagley

September 5, 1941 - December 22, 2016

H. D. Bagley, 75, of Alpharetta, GA passed away peacefully at his home on December 22, 2016

H. D. was born in Forsyth County and moved to Alpharetta at an early age where he attended Milton High School. As a young adult, he worked for Ford Motor Company and became a Barber. During his life, he worked other jobs and operated several businesses to provide for his family. He laid carpet and ran his own carpet installation business. He worked for the United States Postal Service as a Rural Letter Carrier until he had to retire after injuring his shoulder. He not only worked as a Barber but owned several barber shops over the years in Alpharetta and Roswell. At 75, he still owned and operated the Silos Barber Shop in Alpharetta.

From his late 20's into his 40's, if he wasn't working, you would find him volunteering at Wills Park. He enjoyed coaching baseball and watching the games. When he quit coaching, he started umpiring. In his later years when health issues prevented him from attending local games, he would cheer on the Georgia Bulldogs and the Atlanta Braves from his recliner or his barber chair.

H. D. was preceded in death by his parents Herbert and Marie Bagley, brother Charles Bagley and sister Phyllis Bagley Mangum. He is survived by his wife

Julia Strickland Bagley, his children Timothy Bagley, Rhonda Bagley Trainor and Stephen Bagley, his sister Carolyn Bagley Thomas and grandchildren Cherith, Alyssa, Halle, Ryley and Sean.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to the Choices Pregnancy Care Center in Gainesville or Antioch Baptist Church or the Georgia SPCA.

Due to the weather this weekend, the memorial service has been cancelled as of now.

“ I'll miss your welcoming smile and cheering personality. You were an artist at your craft. As I left the barber shop, I always felt like I got more than I gave. Your worldly insights on the days events were spot on correct and your conclusions have had a profound effect on the way I now see the future. And, I got a great hair cut to boot! Thank you! I know you'll have the chair waiting when I get to Heaven. In the mean time, my wife and I will say our prayer for your wife, family and those three granddaughters you often spoke about. God bless you and yours!

“ Judy, Rhonda, Stephen, Alyssa, and Tim,

We are so sorry to hear this news. Jackson said his heart is "broken into a thousand pieces" and is say he will never get his hair cut again if HD can't cut it. We enjoyed seeing him for J's monthly cuts and keeping up with all of you through him. You are all in our prayers.
