

H.H. (Bo) Holton

November 19, 1920 - December 28, 2006

Mr. H.H. (Bo) Holton, 86, went home to the Father's house on December 28, 2006 after suffering complication from pneumonia and a stroke. He is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 60 years, Doris Sammons Holton; daughter Susan Holton of Marietta, son and daughter-in-law, Hayes & Linda Holton of Roswell; granddaughters, Elizabeth and Lauren Holton; brother, Charles Holton of Macon; sister, Maxine Hamilton of Vidalia. Mr. Holton, a native of Soperton, GA. moved to Atlanta in 1946 after serving in the Army during WW II. After completing only the seventh grade, he started his own business and retired at the age of 54 after being recognized as one of the top car dealers in the country. Mr. Holton achieved great success professionally, but most important to him was his family. The greatest gift he could receive at Christmas and birthdays was to be in the presence of his family. His sense of humor endeared himself to the hearts of all. When in his company, everyone felt comfortable because he had the ability to engage people in friendly conversation. Bo never met a stranger. Even to the end, he was a true southern gentleman. A finer man would be hard to find. We will remember him for his unwavering love, devotion, and support. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to North River Baptist Church, 12090 Hardscrabble Rd. Roswell, GA. 30075 or the charity of your choice. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, December 30, 2006 at 11:00 AM in the funeral home chapel. The family will receive friends on Friday, December 29, 2006 from 6-8:00 PM at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors Roswell 770-645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com
