

Hannah Mary Grieco

January 17, 1997 - June 27, 2025

Hannah Mary Agnes Grieco, age 28, of Ball Ground, Georgia, passed away on Friday, June 27th, 2025, after a lengthy and heroic battle with cancer and ensuing complications.

Hannah was born on January 17, 1997 in Salisbury, Maryland, the daughter of Anthony and Judith Grieco.

Hannah moved to Atlanta in 1999 with her family. After high school, she received her Associate of Arts Degree, from St. Mary's College in Saint Mary's, Kansas. Hannah spent several years working as a part-time music teacher and teacher's aide in Post Falls, Idaho and Saint Mary's, Kansas. Always adventurous, she pursued a diverse myriad of opportunities giving her a wealth of experiences in her young life.

In October 2022, Hannah was diagnosed with advanced non-Hodgkins's lymphoma. She moved home and engaged in an aggressive treatment plan. Her efforts resulted in the successful remission of her cancer, however, in the next two years she experienced constant complications in her pursuit of full recovery. On June 27th, 2025, having exhausted all treatment options for lung complications, she passed into eternity surrounded by family and fortified by having received the Sacraments and all the prayers and blessings that the Church has to offer a departing soul.

Hannah was unique. She was graceful, full of life, compassionate, thoughtful, and devoted to her Faith, family and friends. She was intelligent, witty, spontaneous and always ready for a new adventure.

As a well-rounded person, Hannah was an avid reader and lover of music, art, cooking and photography. She loved outdoor life including hiking, equestrian activities, sightseeing, the mountains, beach and travel.

Hannah's smile and personality drew people to her, leaving a lasting impression.

Along with her parents, Hannah is survived by her seven siblings, nine nieces and nephews, and a large extended family. She will be deeply missed by those whose lives she touched.

The visitation for Hannah will take place on Tuesday, July 1, from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM at the Northside Chapel at 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Georgia. The funeral Mass to honor the life of Hannah will take place at 10:00 AM in the morning on Wednesday, July 2, at St. Michaels' Roman Catholic Church, 715 Hardscrabble Road, Roswell, Georgia. The burial will take place immediately after the Mass on Church grounds with a Reception to follow in the Parish Hall.

Quotes from one of Hannah's favorite books are shared with you below:

These are from "The Little Prince" by Antoine De Saint-Exupery, a classic novel:

"One runs the risk of weeping a little if one lets himself be tamed."

"It is only with the heart that one can see rightly."

And from St. Therese of the Child Jesus, a saint whom Hannah had a great devotion to:

"All is great where love is great."

“ Dear Grieco family,

My deepest condolences on the death of your lovely Hannah. I never knew her not to have a sincerely joyful smile on her face, and I count myself privileged to have known her and taught her while she was a student at Saint Mary's College.

Hannah was one of those rare souls who leaves a lasting impression not able to be summed up in words. Please know that she will be remembered by so many people whose lives she touched.

All of you remain in my family's thoughts and prayers.

“ Tony and Judy, I am so saddened to learn of Hannah's passing. I know she was beautiful inside and out and battled her cancer valiantly. While trying to accept the loss of a child is probably the most heart-breaking task one can try to achieve, we have to remember she is in a place of eternal peace and free from her disease. Sending love and prayers for peace and comfort for both of you and all of Hannah's siblings. Jenny and Mike Salvador
