“ I am only now finding out about Harold's passing. He was a great man and a proud American who served his country with pride and honor. He was a good friend to my dad, Russell Honea and served with him in the Air Force. He also was the one that presented the flag to my mother on my dad's passing. My heart goes out to you all. Sending love, hugs and prayers from the girls of Russell and Helen Honea. Elaine Thompson, Hoschton, Ga., , Gail Southwood, Cumming, Wanda Glover, Cumming.

“ Veterans Day and Memorial Day will never be the same at Alpharetta First Baptist. Harold will not be there to lead the parade of flags and veterans down the isle and in the uniform that is probably the same size as the one was when he joined the Air Force. He will truly be missed.

“ My heart is sad for all in the loss of this awesome man. Saying good morning to Harold and Jackie was as much a part of Sunday morning worship as the sermon. I can't remember a time when they were not there. Jackie, what an example of Christianity that you and Harold set for those who admired you both, and your lifelong commitment to each other and to our church. Love and prayers to you all.
