“ Dear Tina and Chandj, What an inspiration you two are for us! We just sttraed to train Freestyle and we simply LOVE it! Roy, my pure bred Border Collie, is already 9.5 years old (he is also a rescue dog!) but he enjoys every new move he learns. Ofcourse I wont push him to do things that he is not able to do physically, but there are still a lot of fun things to do! We just had a weeks workshop by Brigitte van Gestel here in Holland and that was really cool!! I really enjoy the videos of you and Chandj, they are good learningsmaterial for me. What pleases me the most though is that you both seem to have so much FUN together, you are simply in love with eachother . it shows! Thank you for all your routines, and the inspiration!!frinedly greetings from Ramona and Roy from Holland###imported-begin###Krzysztof###imported-end###

Always one with a smile on this face and a quick handshake even when he was not feeling well. You should be very proud of him. “ Henry was one of my all-time favorite people! He had such a positive, fun-loving, enthusiastic outlook on life. We were looking forward in another week or so to his 97th birthday and talking about how to celebrate his 100th. He said he didn't want to remarry because his deceased wife Kathie was the best wife a man could ever have. He was definitely right about that! Think of all the fun Henry is having right now visiting with everyone in heaven! Thirty years ago Henry found out that my then-young husband Bob had just suffered the loss of his father. Henry told him he would be honored to take him to the father-son banquet at Roswell Presbyterian Church. That was one of the kindest things anyone has ever done for us and so typical of Henry. We were privileged to reconnect with Henry when he lost his driver's license and we were able to accompany him to some of the meetings of the Roswell Historical Society. He always reminded us that it would be his third meeting of the day. We always told him we wanted to be just like him when we finally grow up!##imported-begin##Beth St. Jean##imported-end##
