“ To Pam, David and Missy -Phyllis and I just learned of Herman's passing and are truly shocked and saddened. Without a doubt, Herman had a significant impact on our young lives. Shortly after I joined Armco, Herman and family transferred to South Bend where he began taking us under his wing. He influenced us spiritually, academically and professionally. Throughout my career, he was my mentor. His humor was contagious. One of my proudest moments after closing a small building order, was him presenting me with a framed copy of the order with the inscription: Promoted to Salesman....Third Class. He will be missed but our fond memories and experiences of him will last forever.

You all are in our hearts & prayers,

“ Hi Pam:
Very sorry to hear about Herman. As you know I was lucky enough to have worked with him at Matthews Corp after Pete's death. He was one of the good guys. Character, integrity and family values always. It made me a better person just by having worked with him. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Please say hi and pass my condolences to his son David as well.

The William B Sheridan Memorial Sabre is an award made annually by the Reserve Officers Association to the cadet officer of the ROTC unit who is judged to be the best soldier. This Sabre is awarded in memory of Richard Brinkley Sheridan, honor student of the Academy who lost his life in the football uniform of West Point. In order for a cadet to win this award, he must not only be an outstanding officer, but also a capable and versatile student. Although there are no rigid requirements, custom has been established that the recipient of this award be a conscientious student, a prolific athlete, and a leader in class activities. The most conspicuous similarity of the boys that have won this award is their character. Without exception these students have been first and foremost gentlemen. Thus the Sheridan Sabre has come to be the most coveted award that any Academy student can receive. Award for 1949-Major Herman J. Oellerich.

“ I remember Herman well, from working with him at ARMCO in Middletown, Ohio. I was a product manager for the steel division which provided materials to the metal buildings subsidiary which he was in charge of, and I will never forget the stand-up desk which he swore by and used in his office. He was a soft spoken gentleman, and a pleasure to work with. I ran into him some years later in a restaurant in Tampa, after both of us were living there.

I was surprised to see his obituary in the Tampa Bay Times, where his name immediately caught my eye. I was saddened to learn of his passing, and will always remember him as a conscientious professional and dedicated member of the senior management of one of the finest companies in the world. My heartfelt condolences go out to his wife and family.
