

Mrs. Hildegarde Ann Daiber

September 2, 1935 - January 6, 2022

Daiber, Hildegarde Ann “Hilda” (Buchmann) passed away January 6, 2022 after a brief illness. She was 86 years old. She was a resident of St. George Village in Roswell, GA. She is survived by her loving husband of 63 years, John W. Daiber, her three children; Paul Daiber (Susan), Mary Daiber Puskar (Frank), and Andrew Daiber (Audrey), five grandchildren; Rachel Daiber Bessette (Nathan), Eric Daiber, Andrew Daiber (Rebecca), Andrea Puskar Dunn (Matthew), and Christine Puskar, and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; Paul and Frances Buchmann and her two sisters; Martha Kasson and Edna Buchmann.

Hilda was born in Columbus, Ohio and graduated from The Ohio State University in accounting. She was a CPA all of her adult life. She lived in NY and California before moving to Cumming, Georgia in 1998. They were parishioners of Good Shepherd Catholic Church. She and John moved to Saint George Village in 2013 where she was involved in the Villagers and leader of the gardening group. She loved gardening, sewing, rug hooking, singing, reading first hand account books, collecting antiques, and outdoor adventures. She loved animals, especially cats, and would feed, spay, and neuter feral cats. She was a loving wife to her husband who she cared for during his recent illness. She was also a loving mother to her children and grandchildren.

A funeral mass will be held at St. Peter Chanel church on February 9th at 10:30 am. Livestream will be available.
