

Hugh Jarrett

October 11, 1929 - May 31, 2008

JARRETT – Mr. Hugh Thomas Jarrett, 78, died Saturday May 31, 2008, as the result of injuries sustained in an auto accident. Hugh was a world-renowned singer/actor and on-air radio/TV personality who had permanently settled in the Metro-Atlanta area in the 60's following outstanding success in Nashville and Los Angeles. He was inducted into the GA Radio Hall of Fame in its inaugural ceremony and was previously inducted into the GA Music Hall of Fame and well as the Gospel Music Hall. From 1954-1958, Hugh was the bass singer for "The Jordanares" who provided vocal backing to Elvis Presley in recordings and tours, as well as for other famous recording artists. Eddy Arnold featured them on his weekly TV show filmed in Chicago. Elvis has nine records ranked in the "All Time Top 100" and Hugh is the bass singer on six of them. On the first leg of Elvis' first road tour following military service, "The Hugh Jarrett Singers" provided the back-up vocals. Hugh last appeared with "The Jordonaires" in August 1997 at the first of the "Elvis In Concert" shows staged in Memphis. He was also a member of the Statues who had a Top 20 hit in 1959. While at WLAC, Hugh began "The Big Hugh Baby" record hops that featured top recording artists of the day. After his move to Atlanta he continued the "hops" with great success. For several years he was also the singing-emcee for the shows at Lanierland. For a while, he was affiliated with the late Bill Lowery and his publishing and music interests and held on-air positions locally at WPLO, WFOM, WSB, Channel 11 and, more recently, with Christian music station WWEV. He was also heard on numerous commercials, nationally, as well as locally. His movie work included three films starring Elvis, as well as TV-movies starring Johnny Cash, Andy Griffith and Carroll O'Conner. Hugh, a native of Nashville, TN is survived by his wife Jean, son Jeff and his wife Eileen, a surviving grandson and great-granddaughter. Funeral Services will be on Friday June 6 at 11:30 AM from the funeral home chapel with the pastor Don Munn officiating. Interment will follow at Big Springs Cemetery. The family will receive friends on Thursday from 6-8 PM at the funeral home.

“ I worked with Hugh at a little radio station in Austell in the 80's. He was the "air personality". I was a sold ads. I told him I grew up in College Park listening to "Big Hugh Baby". He got a kick out of that.

Hugh was very gracious to me and shared his memories of his time with the Jordanaires and on the radio. He as a good man.

“ On behalf of all pop and rock lovers, and many of Hugh's fans in Toronto, Canada(Elvis and Hugh performed here on 3 occasions in 1957) We all will surely miss his keen wit and tremendous talent. I am a Funeral Director up here in Toronto,and on many occasions when were slow I would put on an Elvis c.d. and of course his early rock songs all featured Hugh's deep baritone voice. Sleep well my friend,you are now with your buddy Elvis.##imported-begin##J. P. Biancofiore##imported-end##

“ What an honor and great priviledge to have known and worked with Hugh.For over a decade at Victory 91.5 - WWEV, I often produced his Sunday morning program. Hugh truly blessed us with his warm personality, his big smile and encouraging words for everyone he met. I am a better person for having know him and will always have many fond memories. I know one day we will meet again, this time, at that great reunion with all belivers who have gone before us. I pray comfort to Hugh's wonderful family. May God wrap his loving arms around them and hold them close. May we all be found faithful. Larry##imported-begin##Larry Grover##imported-end##

“ I had the wonderful privilege of working with Hugh at FM91.5. He was the Sunday morning announcer and I would see him before my Sunday afternoon shift began. Hugh would share stories about his experiences on radio, television, movies, and commercials, the awards that he received, the celebrities he knew, and his musical experiences with Elvis and the other Jordanaires. Hugh always had a rich and distinctive voice, a great sense of humor, and a tremendous love for his family. He will be greatly missed. My prayers are with Jean, Jeff, and his entire family during this time.##imported-begin##Margaret Cheeley##imported-end##

“ In the 60's Atlanta had only two top 40 stations. Big Hugh Baby and Skinny Bobby Harper were the biggest things happening. Ardice fondley remembers sitting on Hugh's lap while he was on the air. She lived across the street from WFOM as she was growing up.

I was twenty when I first met him and was in awe of someone who had actually known and sang with Elvis although he did not talk about it unless I brought it up. Hugh was a modest man who did so much for Cobb County teens with his teen age night club "Big Hugh Baby's Hop-a-Roonie on the "four lane" and through the many teen friendly concerts that he sponsored.

The Big Hugh Baby will be missed!##imported-begin##Paull and Ardice Saffold##imported-end##

“ I am so saddened to learn of Hugh's passing. I met Hugh while he was working at a radio station in Gainesville, Georgia back in the late 1970's and we became good friends. Hugh was someone I respected and looked up to.

One of my fondest memories of Hugh was his reaction to a Christmas stocking I made for him. The stocking had toes in it and he thought it was the cutest thing he'd ever seen. He hung it up at the radio station where he was working at the time and always pointed to the toes and laughed every time he walked by it.

RIP my dear friend Hugh Baby...keep the angels laughing till we meet again.##imported-begin##Rhonda Collins Moser##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Jarrett and family,

I can't tell you how sorry I am for your loss. I remember Hugh from the "Big Hugh Baby Hop" days (dances I went to as a teen-ager). But came to know him through acting and singing. We used to do a few "scales" together about thirty years ago. I always enjoyed visiting with him at SAG meetings. He was a wonderful man and I know you will miss him terribly. I will keep you in my prayers for the loss of both of your family members.

Love,

“ I have had many special memories in my long career as a guitarist, and I am grateful. I am sincere when I say that some of my most rewarding and fulfilling times were spent with Hugh, in the recording studio; on his wonderful morning TV show, and more gratifying, as a friend. I am equally sincere when I say that Hugh Jarrett was absolutely one of the most talented, knowledgeable and kind people I have ever met. My heart has a big hole in it now. The good news is that we will meet again. God Bless Jean and family.##imported-begin##Sid Manley##imported-end##

“ I consider it an honor to have personally known Hugh. During his days (and nights) at WLAC, I would listen in the wee hours from South Georgia to "Hugh Baby" spinning the "rocks".

Years later, as Lead Coordinator for the start-up of WWEV, my wife and I invited our "support team" to our home... and Hugh was a part of this team. I had the pleasure of introducing to the group "Hugh Baby Jarrett!!".

Truely, this is a sad day for Radio and the Gospel Music world; and doubly sad for the Greg Jarrett family.

May God Bless you,

“ I never knew Hugh Baby personally, but I have for many years thought of him as a friend. I met him once in Cumming at a drug store. Before that he was the voice that came from my radio. I used to listened to WLAC before we had FM. you could pick it up late at night in Cumming. Many are the nights he road with me in my '55 chevy. It was Hugh Baby and John R. Thanks Hugh for the memories and say hellow to John and Elvis for me. May God bless his family##imported-begin##william pugh##imported-end##

“ I know the Father, Son, Holy Spirit and all the angels (as well as all those who have gone before us) are already laughing at the fun stories Hugh Baby is telling!
I met him as an 18-year-old dj in Gainesville, GA where we worked together at WLBA and then later crossed paths at WVEV. He nicknamed me "Buff Wormwood" and we shared snacks every afternoon while he was on the air.
What a precious man and sweet friend.
Thank you, Jean and family for sharing him with all of us. Heaven is a happier place today now that he is there.
My family's prayers are with you for God's peace for you as you grieve the great loss of Hugh Baby and Greg.

“ I was honored to work with Hugh at WWEV radio in Cumming, Georgia. He was such a special man and I always thought of him as a great big teddy bear. I loved to hear his stories. He always had a big smile on his face and was full of joy and happiness. I'll always remember that Hugh let the news out when I was expecting my second child before I could tell the station manager.
