“ It's hard to believe it's been twenty years since Ida left us. So much has changed, and yet her presence is still felt every day.

She was hopeful, full of faith, and determined to live life on her own terms. Though her journey with cancer was long and painful, she carried herself with courage and left behind memories that still bring both tears and smiles.

Her loss reshaped our lives, and the road since then has not been easy. But her spirit lives on in our children, who continue to find their way forward with quiet resilience. I see glimpses of her strength in them, and that gives me hope.

I miss Ida's laughter, her warmth, and the way she always held on to hope. Today I honor her memory with love and gratitude for the years we shared. She will always be part of us.
