

Irene Macris

October 20, 1920 - February 19, 2013

Irene Macris, 92, of Alpharetta passed away February 19, exactly 29 years after the death of her husband Dennis. She was born in Zakynthos, Greece October 20, 1920 and lived a long eventful life, surviving the Great Depression, the Axis occupation, famine, Communist Civil War, and the earthquake of 1953 that destroyed the Island of Zakynthos. Thanks to the earthquake and with the assistance of her nephew Dr. Allen Macris and his wife Eftichia, Irene and her family immigrated to Alpharetta in 1956 where they were embraced by that small loving community. She was employed by the Fulton County School System for a number of years. Irene was a gifted seamstress, gardener, and cook, specializing in a number of traditional Zakynthinian dishes. She was a founding member of Holy Transfiguration Greek Orthodox Church in Marietta where she sang in the choir as long as her health permitted and was also a member of the charitable Ladies Philoptochos Society. Irene is survived by her son Dr. Bobby Macris and spouse Dorothy of Alpharetta and daughter Ellen Young and spouse Greg of Roswell. She was also blessed with grandchildren Rena Young Johnson and husband Jason and David Young of Roswell, Daniel Macris of Dunwoody and Christy Macris of Georgetown, Texas, and three adorable great-grandsons, Zack, Tyler, and Jared Johnson. The family will receive friends from 5:00 to 7:00 PM this Sunday evening and a brief Trisagion prayer service will follow. The funeral service will be held at Holy Transfiguration Greek Orthodox Church , Marietta on Monday at 11:00 AM, with interment at Greenlawn

Cemetery Roswell. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to either Holy Transfiguration Greek Orthodox Church or AHEPA Scholarship Fund (American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association) at 3431 Trickum Road, Marietta 30066.

“ Dear Ellen and Bobby
I've thought about you all a lot over the years since we all lived on Canton Street ; your dad used to take produce from his garden to my brother, David, and his family next door, and your mom was one of the sweetest women I ever knew ... they were the best neighbors anyone could hope for. ALthough I don't believe I met your dad, I did have the pleasure of meeting your mom, and knew her as one of the sweetest women I ever met. I grieve with you both today in the loss of your wonderful Mother. Love3 to you both . . .##imported-begin##Nan Harman-Dempsey##imported-end##
