“Ivanette, Jerry, Ginger, Jeff and Matthew are a huge part of our mine and my sisters' childhoods. Ivanette was always there for our Mother and for us full of her bubbly, fun personality. We always looked forward to going school clothes shopping with Iva. She had so much patience taking us to Perimeter Mall to shop as long as we needed to even though I would end up coming right back to the first thing I liked at the beginning of the shopping day. She would just laugh at me. I loved watching Iva, my Mother, Aunt Elsie and Aunt Ruby together on our trips in the summer. They were the best of friends and always taking care of our families making every summer, every Christmas, Easter and family dinners so much fun. They cooked up a storm, taught us girls how to cook, and to clean up. Whenever we would be doing dishes after one of our dinners, one of our running fun memories was Ivanette saying, "let's put this in another bowl so we can wash this one!" I'll never forget her laugh... her voice and how much she loved her family and ours. She even took me to get my driver's license. So I have to add that she was also very brave! She was like another Mother for us; and we sure did love growing up with Ginger and Jeff and absolutely adored baby sitting Jeff and later Matthew who is more like one of my nephews.

We had so many fun trips to the beach, the North Georgia Mountains and Six Flags... they would dress all of us just alike and go through the park counting kids throughout the day... it was a different world then. We were all so very close.

Time and raising a family of your own, having to work and provide for little ones yourself, can take you away from those you love so much and always hold so dear. And I certainly do hold Ivanette so near and dear to my heart like our escapades were just yesterday.

Iva was genuine, loving, fun and loyal. It is a tremendous loss for us here and a greater gain for Heaven where I know she is getting to reunite with our sons.

Love, Sherry

“ Ivanette, my Friend and like a Sister:

We started spending time together when Ginger was a baby; and then Jeff came along. Between Ginger and my 5 girls, Jeffrey's little feet never hit the floor.:) Myself, Ivanette and Elsie were the "Threesome" along with our 9 kids, we did everything together. We made a tradition of taking the kids swimming at my sister's pool on Saturdays in the summer and to Six Flags. And, when we went to Six Flags, we made an all day event of it getting there before it opened and staying until it closed. Ivanette would hang in there with me and help do whatever I was doing whether it was putting a truck load of corn or 6 flats of strawberries in the freezer... or baking cakes for Christmas (our record was 13 cakes in one day!). When we cooked a meal, I always asked Iva to make the biscuits with those tiny little hands. Between Iva being so tiny and my being 6 years older, everybody thought she was one of my kids everywhere we went! And, we went a lot of places! From the beach in Florida, to the North Ga Mountains and Gatlinburg, Tn, my sister Ruby arranged our tickets, rooms or cabins and drove us where ever we were going. If you wanted to find us and our 9 kids, all you had to do was follow the laughter or find the comical moment we were all sharing. The memory of the human pyramid we made in a cabin in North Georgia comes to mind. We were all laughing so hard, we couldn't hold it for very long! There were so many of us, we had enough for 2 softball teams! Many weekends in the Spring and Summer, we would go to our farm in Cherokee County and play softball with our husbands and kids. The three of may not have been very good, but somebody had to make all of the outs! One Easter, we packed up a big dinner, dressed our kids up and drove to Palmetto, GA to Holiday Downs where we had our Easter egg hunt and watched the horse races! One weekend we all had the very unique experience to watch a horse race against a Harley Davidson motorcycle... the horse won! Our kids grew up and then the Grandchildren came along. Of course, they all love her just like my girls do.

There are so many memories with her that began in the early 70's until now that this memorial wall cannot hold. But they will be in my heart forever. It was through Ivanette that I met her best friend, Carol Pruitt Yeje. Carol became my Friend and Godmother to my girls. Thank you, Ivanette for all of the wonderful memories you gave me and my entire family. I love now and always. Irma
