

Ms. Ivey Leigh Mustaki

June 28, 1999 - March 16, 2018

Ivey Leigh Mustaki- Passed with peace on March 16, 2018. She died young at the age of 18 years old. Ivey was born in Atlanta, and she lived in Milton, Georgia with her family. Ivey attended Cambridge High School and was a Varsity/Competitive Cheerleader for many years. She was a Christian and attended Stonecreek Church and her Small Group. Ivey was accepted into the Honors Program at Georgia Southern, after which she wanted to pursue a career as a Nurse Anesthetist and continue in the master's program at Columbia University. Ivey is survived by her loving parents Leo and Lauralyn Mustaki, her brothers, Niles Berthen (Atlanta, GA) and Pierce Mustaki (Milton, GA). She also is survived by her grandmother Audrey Mustaki (Cumming, Ga), grandfather Wiley J. Waters (Jesup, GA) aunts Lyn (David) Sheffield, (Cumming, GA), Lori (Joe) Tate, (Cumming GA), Carolyn (Geoffrey) Stagg, uncles Wiley J Waters Jr. (Birmingham, AL) and Stuart Waters (Jesup, GA), cousins Catherine (Stephen) Wright, (Jacksonville, NC) Crystal (Alex) Woodward, (Jacksonville, NC), Josh Tate, Jacob Tate, and Mason Sheffield (Cumming, GA), Geoffrey Stagg Jr, Laura Stagg, Julie Stagg and Michael Stagg (Greensboro, NC), as well as many loving friends and relatives.

Memorial Service for Ivey Leigh Mustaki will be held on Thursday, March 22, 2018, at 12:00 p.m., at Stonecreek Church. The family will hold a visitation before the memorial, from 11:00 to 11:50 a.m.

Ivey was very creative, and in her own words, she stated, “My name has no specific meaning to others. It is just a name that my parents liked. They had always told me it was a unique and bold name, one that is way beyond ordinary. The kind of name kindergarteners laughed at like they just saw a dancing vegetable or a name people made nice regard on. To me, my name means something pleasant and calm, like an ocean slowly breaking on the shore. Ivey is my name, and it is not like the plant. Growing up I was called poison on the bus. I told people I did not mind it, but when I got home, I always complained to my parents. They would just tell me, 'But Ivey is so lively,' and soon the comments did not bother me. I used to want a new name. Probably because I didn't like how it sounded or the way people used it in context. Now I love my name because it is one of a kind. I like the way it sounds and how it flows. It rolls off your tongue like a marble and looks like a polka dot in a room full of stripes. I'm Ivey, but if it floats your boat, you could call me poison.”

Flowers can be sent to Stonecreek Church or donations may be made in Ivey Leigh Mustaki's honor to the Will to Live Foundation at www.will-to-live.org.

“ Ivey and I had gone to school together ever since elementary school. We were never really friends or anything, but I'd think about her every once in a while because I just have this memory of these kids calling her poison ivy in class and me defending her because I always thought her name was really pretty. She was just one of those people who stayed in your memory even though you were never close. Finding out that she's gone kind of stopped me in my tracks; I can't imagine what it was like for those in her life. I'm so, so sorry for your loss.

“ I remember meeting Ivey for the first time. Mom was getting ready to play her match and Ivey was all set with crayons and activities. She could not have been more than four but she invited me to color with her. Her style was to sit on the ground and have all the crayons around her. I was so touched she included me. Mustaki Family, there is no sentence I can form but so much love sent your way that I hope that you can feel it.

“ Lauralyn, Leo, Pierce and Niles,
So sorry to hear about the passing and loss of your beautiful Ivey. I remember Reeves playing baseball with Pierce on the Barons and Ivey hanging out running around. Cannot believe how quickly time passes. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this most difficult time. May the good Lord help ease the pain and give you peace in the coming days ahead!

“ *Lauralyn, Leo, Niles and Pierce... sending all my love to you. In my faith we say... "Inna Lillahi wa inna ilayhi raji'un... which means We belong to God and to Him we return... Know that you are all loved. Sarah and I wish you love for there is nothing that will ever replace her in your hearts. I did not get to know her but through the stories today, I think I know what a very special human being she was.

“ We’ve met very few individuals that have made such a profound and lasting impression on us as Ivey did. We met the 13 yr old beautiful, precocious, energetic, poised, and intelligent Ivey at her mother’s birthday party. From that point forward, we have often reminisced about what a blessing it was to have met Ivey and now compare other young people to her (others have quite a high standard to live up to!!!). May God bring comfort and strength to all that loved her and prepare all for a joyous reunion in Heaven someday. - Phil and Kay Whisenhunt, Little Rock, Arkansas.

“ We have only known Ivey for a short time, but we adored her right from the start. She cared for our daughter after school since the beginning of the school year. Our Soraya absolutely loved Ivey and couldn't wait to see her on the says she picked her up from school. Ivey was a joy to be around with the brightest smile I've ever seen. She was a sweet angel that will forever be missed. We are so deeply saddened by the loss of this beautiful light. With heavy hearts, our thoughts, and prayers go out to her family and loved ones. May God be with you in this time of need.

“ ~ My daughter had many classes with Ivey. She shares that Ivey was the Brightest Light and was always hugging everyone. And her smile, her gorgeous Angelic smile! Ivey's sparkle energy literally lit people up. This beautiful soul will indeed be shining her light down and around all of you, every second. Praying for your family. Although I personally did not know Ivey, I am mourning the loss of her light. I can feel her loving energy come through when my daughter talks about her. ...May Love and Lⁱght surround you all and bring peace to your hearts and minds.
