

Ivy B. Johnson, Jr.

April 17, 1933 - August 31, 2007

Ivy B. Johnson Jr., aged 74, died 31 August 2007

Ivy was a lifelong resident of Fulton County and the son of Ivy B. & Edna Kimberly Johnson, Sr. of Atlanta., both having preceded him in death.

Ivy was a pioneer entrepreneur and well known by his family, friends and business associates as a man who gave of himself to all of those around him.

It is no wonder, with Ivy and Norma's outgoing and charitable personalities, that they chose a profession of making friends and helping others.

Norma and Ivy's lives have for many years been true reflections of their love for their churches, Mt. Paran Church of God, Atlanta and World Harvest Church in Roswell where they have both been longstanding members.

Ivy played professional baseball for the Atlanta Crackers in the days of Ponce de Leon Ball Park. He served in the U.S. Army and played football for the Army team. As energetic, enthusiastic and motivating as he was, he will be remembered most for speaking softly, rarely raising his voice, and for his special connection to children. He was always the one to soothe the crying baby.

Ivy was a devoted husband, family man, friend and church member. Ivy and Norma used their faith, home environment, living by example and sports to steer their sons and countless others in the right direction. Well done, thou good and faithful servant...Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord. Matthew 25:21 laws: Ivy B. & Gayle Johnson III, Marty & Libby Johnson, Stacy Johnson, Kevin and April Johnson. Grandchildren: Ivy B. Johnson IV, Jennifer (& James) Love, Kalyn, Michael, Miles, Lauren and Nathan Johnson. Great-Grandchildren: Megan Love, Logan Johnson, Abigail Love, Gabriel Love and soon to be born Emily and Bailey Johnson. Sister: Brenda Torbett of Vinings, Ga. Brothers and Sister-in-laws: Billy and Karen Watson and Dr. Donald M. and Jackie Walker. Several nieces and nephews.

Ivy is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Norma. Sons and daughter-in-

In lieu of flowers, family and friends are encouraged to make donations to the Ivy B. Johnson Jr. Memorial Fund at his and Norma's church to help spread the gospel and do good works for the Lord. World Harvest Church 320 Hardscrabble Road Roswell, Ga. 30075 770.643.9223

Visitation will be at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell, Georgia 30075 on Sunday evening 6:00 until 9:00 p.m. Services will be Tuesday morning, 11:00 a.m., September 4, 2007 from World Harvest Church, 320 Hardscrabble Road, Roswell, Georgia 30075.

Honorary Pall Bearers will be life long friends and family members: Arvel Burrell, William Burrell, Gordon A. Watson Jr., Joe McCann, David Watson, Scott Harris, Harry Wicker, Andy Camp, Phillip Bray.

“ *The very first time we met Ivy he made us feel like we were long lost family, but really after many gatherings we knew that his trueness and passion was us, the friends and accuantances. We knew that we had a freindship with a person that was real and Christ-like that it was un-deniable the passion and drive of his life was Jesus Christ. What an honor to be a friend, an affliate with such a man of valor! We truly want to leave the legacy that this friend has! We cannot wait to praise God on streets of gold with him soon!!! Its an Honor! Truly an honor,

“ I'm sorry to hear about Ivy's passing. Kevin and I were freinds when we were growing up at Mount Paran, and I remember Kevin's family always welcoming me into their home and being very active at school and church. I remember Ivy bringing Kemo (a 200lb husky) to visit and we all ran like he was a killer wolf, but in fact they were both big softies. God Bless You All.

“ Norma, Ivy, Gayle, Kevin, Libby & Johnsons all, Betty & I are saddened to learn of the death of such a beautiful man. We loved his wry wit and humanity. Voids that you feel now are deeply felt and will never vanish. However, the pleasure of having been with him all these loving years will be cherished forever and will be the source of great comfort.

We appreciate you Johnsons,

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family; I grew up with the Johnson's while attending MT Paran, Kevin and I were close like brothers, Ivy was like a second father to me. I will miss his laughs, and jokes. We will all see him in glory soon. It just seems like yesterday when Ivy and the family had dinner in a restaurant I opened. I send all my love and condolences to the family.

“ DEAR NORMA AND FAMILY:

I WAS SO SORRY TO HEAR ABOUT IVY WHEN EMILY CALLED ME. I HAVE NOT SEEN OR TALKED WITH YOU FOR SOME TIME, BUT WHEN I DID TALK WITH GAIL OR EMILY, I WOULD ALWAYS ASK HOW THE TWO OF YOU WERE DOING. NORMA, I CERTAINLY KNOW WHAT A TERRIBLY SHOCK THIS IS TO YOU. I REMEMBER WHEN BERNARD DIED, HOW I FELT AND I KNOW IT IS TWICE AS BAD FOR YOU.

YOUR LIFE WITH IVY HAS BEEN A LONG ONE. I CAN REMEMBER WHEN I WAS IN THE BAND AT O'KEEFE AND YOU AND IVY WOULD TAKE ME TO THE FOOTBALL GAMES SO I COULD PLAY IN THE BAND. MOM AND DAD DID NOT HAVE A CAR. I ALSO REMEMBER WHEN LITTLE ICY WAS BORN, YOU WOULD BRING HIM TO THE HOUSE SO MOTHER AND I COULD BABYSIT HIM. IT SEEMS AS THOUGH TIME GOES BY SO QUICKLY THAT WE NEVER SEEM TO HAVE THE TIME TO SAY HOW MUCH A PERSON MEANS TO US.

I WANT YOU AND YOUR FAMILY TO KNOW THAT TOM AND I WILL BE THINKING OF ALL OF YOU ESPECIALLY AT THIS TIME. OUR PRAYERS ARE WITH YOU ALL.

LOVE ALWAYS,

“ To Norma and her entire family,

I was heart-broken when I heard of Ivy's passing. He was such a clown, jokester, passionate and loving man. It was always a blessing to see Norma and Ivy together; they completed each other; you couldn't think of one without thinking of the other.

I will never forget his encouragement and compassion he had for all of us who were his "downline" in Neways. Ah yes, he loved his job because "he got to hug and kiss all of us girls", and we loved it too. Of course we gave Norma equal time.

My hope is that the Lord will bless you and help you as well during your grieving of Ivy and give you some peace and hope for your futures for he and Ivy will be watching.

You will always be in my prayers.

Love,

Patti Gentry

“ Norma, Little Ivey, Marty, Stacey and Kevin - my heart was broken when I heard about Big Ivey. I understand the pain that you are going through. I love you all deeply and have considered you as brothers and parents. An extension of my family growing up, you were always so special. A lot of fond memories between our two families. I thank the Lord for the time I had with Ivey and the love he showed me after my father passed away. He was the only person that qualified in filling my own Dad's shoes. “ What a love Ivy was and what a joy to have had the opportunity to know him. Anyone who met him felt his sincere love and kindness. At business gatherings he would say, "I love my job because I get to walk around and hug all the beautiful women." A man of strength but gentle voice, he was always quick to give an encouraging word. Ivy will be missed by all. My heart goes out to Norma but I also know that you are a woman of character and that your strength comes from the Lord. The joy in your sorrow is knowing he is with our Lord Jesus and you will see him again. Norma, you inspire and teach us in ways you will never know and I thank God for the mentor and friend you are in my life. For many years I have been a part of the Johnson family. I love you all dearly and I am here for you lifting you up in prayer and for anything you need. May God bless you and keep you, make His face shine upon you and give you peace.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Ivy’s sudden passing so unexpectedly. Please know that you are all in my prayers during this time of sorrow. I know that you are comforted in the knowledge that in the sovereignty of God this separation will only be for a short time compared to all eternity. Even though your heart aches because of Ivy’s absence, the Lord is faithful to comfort you during this time of grief. The Lord will comfort you, as you are reminded of the infinite and heavenly glory that is right now (as you are reading this) being seen by our dear brother in Christ, Ivy, (your dad, husband, and grandfather), with unveiled perfect spiritual discernment.
