

Jack Michael Webb

November 22, 1945 - March 2, 2026

Jack Michael Webb, beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of faith, love, and devotion to family. Born on November 22, 1945, at Crawford W Long Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, Jack was the son of Sam and Ethel Webb, of Sandy Springs.

Jack is survived by his loving wife, Brenda Randall Webb, with whom he shared a lifetime of love, partnership, and cherished memories. He is also survived by his large and beautiful family: his three children, Jeff (and Tracy), Greg (and Sarah), Kristen (and Jeff); and his grandchildren: Taylor (Kevin Diaz) and great granddaughter, Ari; Jacob Webb (Maddie); Ashton Webb; Karissa Anderson; Kaegan Anderson; Judah Webb; Owen Webb; Josie Webb; Ethan Webb; Everly Webb; sister Carol McClure (Steve); and brother Charlie (Sheila).

Known lovingly as “Poppa” to his grandchildren and great-grandchild, Jack found his greatest joy in his family. He intentionally invested time in the lives of his loved ones in everyday moments that created fun and lasting memories.

Being a husband, father, and poppa were the roles he cherished most.

Jack’s life was deeply rooted in his trust in his Savior. His quiet strength, compassion, and servant’s heart reflected the values he lived by each day.

Those who knew Jack knew a man of integrity and warmth — someone who valued hard work, loyalty, and the simple blessings of life. He brought comfort, humor, and wisdom in every space he entered. His legacy will live on through countless friends and family who were influenced by him.

Though he will be deeply missed, his family finds peace in knowing he is now resting in the presence of the Lord he faithfully served. His memory will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
