“ To repeat the words of the Terracino's our hearts are so heavy as we just today learned the news. Please know that we are here for you as well and have always been in our prayers and will continue to be from now on. Your family's love and sacrifice for Jacob was a tremendous inspiration to us. Love, The Watkins - 1535 Northcliff

“ Words just cannot describe how we feel. It has been a surreal weekend with heavy hearts for us all on the Northcliff Trace circle. My fondest memory of Jake from the Halloween before the accident when he came trick or treating in his stroller in his monkey suit - he had just won the Costume Contest in the neighborhood. Or course, he had no idea why we were oohing and aahing over him, but he was just too darn cute! We had just gone out of town on the day of the accident so we didn't know for a week. The neighborhood just hasn't been the same since. Amy and Scott, we are here for you to do anything you need and I mean it when I say that and this - PLEASE don't hesitate to call us for anything, any time of the day or night. If you need help with a Noah diversion, Kelli and I are here and available.

We love you all and, with heaviest of hearts, are praying for all of you.
