

James A. Grissett, Jr.

December 1, 1932 - September 20, 2010

James (Jim) Arthur Grissett, Jr., of Atlanta, Georgia died Monday, September 20, 2010 after a long illness.

Born in Ray City, GA, December 1, 1932, to the late James and Lillie Grissett, Jim was an excellent student attending North Georgia Military College for 2 years. He then transferred to and received his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering in 1958 from the Georgia Institute of Technology. He went on to become a professional engineer, beginning his career at Lazenby and Borum. He then joined Cecil B. Day Investment Company, where he served as Vice President of Construction and Development until retirement. He was a member of the Georgia Society of Professional Engineers, Florida Society of Professional Engineers and ASHRAE. Jim was also a long time member of Dunwoody Baptist Church. He was a loving and devoted husband, father and grandfather. Jim is survived by his wife of 55 years, Greta; son and daughter-in-law James III (Jim) and Judi Grissett; daughter and son-in-law Cathy and Tim Williams; son Mark Grissett; and daughter and son-in-law Linda and Kevin Keeton. His beloved grandchildren are Veronica Grissett, James Grissett IV, Lamar Williams, Marie Williams, Benjamin Williams, Barrett Williams, Christian Keeton and Matthew Keeton. All children and grandchildren live in the Atlanta area. He is also survived by his siblings, Ann Weinaug of Jacksonville, FL, Elinor Hallman of Mary Esther, FL, Gloria Buntin of St. Simons Island, GA and Steve Grissett of Rome, GA. A private graveside service will be held on September 23, 2010 at Arlington Memorial Park. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Dunwoody Baptist Church or Georgia Institute of Technology. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, Roswell, GA, 770/645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com
