“ The Duffy family sends most heartfelt condolences. Jim is remembered by all of us. He was a wonderful friend and teammate. His sense of humor was always just beneath the surface, and he could turn a tedious afternoon into laughter in an instant. As a teacher, he was dedicated, concerned, and committed to helping every student become the best he or she could be. At Camp MADACA, where some of us worked with Jim and some of us were his campers, he helped turn every day into a learning experience, and helped to make it fun too. He was a great friend, and we will miss him.
