

Mr. James H. Buice

April 12, 1949 - March 19, 2016

April 12, 1949 - March 19, 2016

Georgia gave one of its most amazing sons back to Heaven on Saturday, March 19, 2016. Beloved James Hugh Buice, son of Carl Reno and Claire Elizabeth, formerly of Wilcox County, is a most welcome angel there and a most missed man here. He is survived by his wife of almost 42 years, Monika; daughters Linda and Angela; son Keith, son-in-laws John and Bruce; grandchildren Alexandra, William, Nicholas, Augustus and James; brothers Jerry, Bobby, Ronnie and Donnie; sisters Faye, Linda, and Margaret and many nieces and nephews. Anyone who ever knew him, loved him and never did he meet a stranger. Always laughing, always a jokester...he will be a jovial angel and fierce guardian. In keeping with his desire to care for his wife, in lieu of flowers, contributions "for the benefit of Monika Buice" may be made at Wells Fargo Bank N.A., Acct # 6499398755, routing # 061000227 in the name of Angela McPherson. God Bless.

“ I've know James since 1995. He was always coming into the Dunwoody WH 575 (and then Alpharetta, and then Crabapple) with a big mischievous grin, asking, "How's my old lady." I thought about this when George Robbins contacted me a few days ago with the news. He always talked well about his family. He said once, "I would never cheat on my wife because I had it done to me and I know how it feels." I remember I was so worried about my grandson not having a trade, and James stated, "Don't worry Gail. When he's old enough I will train him to be a locksmith." Little things like that, he did, made a difference. God bless you, James. You're a good man....and I haven't met that many.

The photo is James with my sister, Debbie, who also worked at WH.

“ I have only met you a few times that I can remember but I know one thing, you raised two wonderful daughters that I consider great friends who hold a special place in my heart; Linda and Angie. Just knowing them tells me all I need to know about what type of man you were.

I know you are watching over your children, grand children and surviving family members while up in heaven. Hopefully they will feel your presence; giving them some comfort as they go through this adjustment of not having you physically on God's Earth. It will not be easy for them, but with fond memories of you putting smiles on their faces and laughter in their heart, I know they will pull through.

Rest in Peace, father of my friends. May God wrap you in his warm embrace while your reside in his Kingdom.

*Dan? You are an amazing friend and having lost your dad not so long ago, I know you feel our anguish...
Had you known our dad better? You'd feel his loss immensely...he had such a indomitable affect on all who knew him...much evidenced by his "Celebration of Life"....
Thank you my friend for such loving words...

“ I met James when working at Waffle House (I think we all know this was his favorite place) He made it such a great joy seeing him everyday, his silly sense of humor and grin always kept us laughing. Every time he'd set foot in the door I'd say "here comes trouble" and he'd reply "c'mon darlin, I aint that bad." I left Waffle House for a few years, and he was the first I asked about when I returned. When I saw him for the first time in years, I ran up to him and hugged him so tightly that he gasped and whispered "ease up darlin, don't want people thinking I'm an old man"... I wish I could give you one last teddy bear hug Mr. James...Thanks for all the laughs and humor that we'll remember forever!!! Love you old man!

“ Dad, I just wanted to let you know that you are the most incredible person that I have ever met! When we first met you, I asked you, "Are you going to be my new daddy?" When you said, "Yes" to a five year old, I bet you never thought about how your life would change.....and change it did :) Thank you so very much for being my Dad, my friend, my champion! You are missed something fierce! I know you have already found a Waffle House so you can shoot the breeze with friends and strangers alike! I love you to the moon and back!

You had such an indomitable spirit...I only wish I were telling you in person rather than here...you fought so hard, so bravely for so long...I hope you are at peace and maybe? Laughing as us as we struggle to make sense of the senseless...Thank you Dad for making me cry and laugh at once...miss you...

“ Yes Dad, I am about to be tremendously silly and write a note to you on here...I am missing you terribly...I know its stupid, I've lived a million miles away FOREVER but? Knowing you will never call me again to say "I love you" or even your goofy, "I'm gonna slap you" when you don't like something I say, is just unbearable at the moment. I hope you know how loved you were...not just by me, but by soooo very many people. You were goofy and strict and funny and more intelligent than you ever wanted anyone to know...somehow thinking it was bad to admit it? I want you to know I respect you and love you and will miss you forever...everything from those goofy eyes you made(that were funny even when irritating me) to chastising me for well, just being me:) at times...even telling my friends I was restricted so long that I would have to get married in my room, which thank God, didn't happen! I will miss everything Dad...and I will miss you not getting more time with your grandchildren, my children and I am so sorry there were such long absences between visits. I hope you are rolling your eyes and making faces and goofy remarks to those with you in Heaven,,,mostly? I hope to awaken and find this the scariest nightmare ever and be given the chance to hug you and say I Love You, in person, again...You really are my dad and you really mean the world to me.
