“ Daddy,
I will forever miss you and your smile. And remember the "Important things in life". We went through alot together over the years and especially this last year--I am thankful that you no longer have to endure the pain--I know that you are at peace with MawMaw and PawPaw now and looking after Frankie for me-- I LOVE YOU!###imported-begin##Barbara (Walls) Anderson-Bates###imported-end##

“ Daddy,

I will miss you. Your love was always known and I will hold you and your memory in my heart always. I will think of you smiling - calling me home from school in 6th grade so you could give me a new hamster, when mine had died; rubbing my temples when I had migranes as a teenager; riding with you on the Harley; taking day trips with you in the firebird to have a picnic in North Georgia; you getting up before dawn to make sure I had a hot breakfast before I went to work, when I stayed with you that week after Maw-ma passed away... Love always, Deb###imported-begin##Debi (Walls) Kenny###imported-end##
