“ I am deeply saddened at the death of a longtime friend. James was always a sweet guy with a great personality and full of laughter. He helped me to create my Amazon character in Traveler and was my protector in high school. Until I see your sweet face again, rest peacefully, James. “ I am already missing James quick smile and kind "hello" as leave north fulton hospital each day. He has been a part of the fabric of that place for the past 20 years that I have been there. “ I knew James from my gaming group, he played with us for over an year before leaving for health reasons. He never failed to make it a fun interesting session. How often does the only doc just jump out of the 2nd story window after the "bad guys"? Only when James is playing him. =) You will be missed. Keep rolling only 20s brother.##imported-begin##Jeb Napier##imported-end##

“ Cruel death
The young leaves droop in anguish
The evening's breeze will restore
The morning sunrise mocks my anguish
Time for him will blossom
Nevermore.

The world is lesser for the loss of the first runner up "World's Most Interesting Man"

I never thought you could be hurt by anything less than +5 or a Vorpall blade

“ Dear Friend: We are sorry for your loss. Here is a scripture that has provided comfort during times of distress: Revelation 21:4 - "And God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."##imported-begin##A Neighbor##imported-end##

“Martin Luther King said, "Everybody can be great because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love." In recognition of James Todd, I offer my condolences. The difference he made in the lives of others will be missed. - jaycee###imported-begin###Jaycee Harding###imported-end##
