“ *Jim has been our neighbor for a long time here at the Alpharetta Business Center. Our whole staff has had the pleasure of being helped by Jim at one time or another with all our business and home computer ills. We are all so saddened by this and send our prayers and best wishes to the family and friends who will surely miss him. “ Although I had only met James on this ride, it shows me that he had good in his heart. I have always been a believer in fate and that God has a purpose for all of us. In either one we do not have control to what happens in our lives. To that end be happy for James as he moves on to a greater adventure.##imported-begin##Stephen Risolvato##imported-end##

“ Jims, true friendship, his care and concern for other people and his business practices were very genuine. He loved riding that motorcycle. He would rather ride for a cause than to just ride. If it was for angel flight, breast cancer, cruelty of children or other causes he wanted to help. May GODS grace and love cover and keep all his family and all the riders in this very hard time.##imported-begin##richard mays##imported-end##

“ i sincerely pray that the family can find comfort and hope in God's will, and His divine love. He is the only place to turn to in times that make us so heavy hearted. I know God loves Jim and will love and protect the family thru this time of so much grief. My prayers and thoughts are with you, and we love you all thru this. bobby c.##imported-begin##Bobby Coleman##imported-end##

“ We met Jim about 4 years ago when he was our next door neighbor at the Alpharetta Business Center and we enjoyed renewing that friendship when we moved Bristol Academy back to the business center about a year ago. We could not help but notice that Jim was consistently friendly with everyone and genuinely cared about his clients. He always provided excellent service! Several of our student families appreciated his help as well. Our hearts go out to Jim's family at this time of loss. May God give you his comfort and strength for each day.
