“ *Dear Donna, Gary and I were so saddened to hear of Jim's passing. It is oftentimes difficult to understand why some people have to leave this earth so early. It breaks my heart that Jim's time came so quickly after he retired. I feel very blessed to have known Jim and to have had the opportunity to work with him. Jim was one of Gary's favorite partners as he was always so friendly and caring toward everyone. We have wonderful memories of Jim. I know that you and your daughters do too, and those memories will help us all over time. We will keep you in our prayers and pray that God will give you continued strength and peace during this most difficult time. “ After I left Colorado in 2003 I lost touch with old friends and didn't hear about a lot of important occurrences that I wish I knew about so I could send my regards. Sadly, Mr. Mogelnicki's passing is one of the few occurrences that have reached me. Robin, I give you my deepest condolences; I remember how much he meant to everybody and how many people he has touched. He was the type of man I felt comfortable just walking up to and sparking up a conversation and I think everyone feels the same way I do. “ Donna, I was surprised and saddened to hear about Jim. He join PW the year after I did and I considered him one of my close friends during my years with PW. We spent a lot of time together at continuing education courses and other meetings. I am especially sorry that I received the notice from PWC after the funeral services, as I live in Cleveland, TN, not far from Roswell. I would have been privileged to attend the service. I had no idea we lived this close - I would have loved to visit over the past several years. Our best wishes and prayers are extended to you and your family during the coming weeks and months. “ Dear Donna,
After nearly twenty years of trusted professional relationship as a client of Jim, we continued to cultivate our friendship after our respective retirements. Our annual lunches at Chinook Tavern were a highlight of the year, enjoying Jim's smile and sense of humor, teasing each other about our mountain travels, he on snowmobile, I on crosscountry skis...up until last May: he was already fighting very hard, but still in high spirits. He was an inspiration with his love of life and love of his family amid his hardship. It is a privilege to have been his friend and his business partner. My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family.##imported-begin##Philippe Dunoyer, Denver, CO##imported-end##

“ Donna and family,
It is with a heavy heart that we say good-bye to a great friend and irreplaceable mentor. Jim has been and will continue to be an inspiration to me. He had an unmatched sense of right and wrong, and the courage to be on the side of right. He was a tremendous supporter of the people he worked with. He worked hard, but was the best example of work life balance I have ever known. He was fun to be with. He redefined the phrase, work hard and play hard. I am only one of many people that have directly experienced the positive influence of Jim Mogelnicki. Many more will experience his positive influence indirectly, through those of us affected deeply by having known him.##imported-begin##Mike & Cheryl Einspahr & family##imported-end## “ Sarah told me the visitation and funeral was intimate family, which I understand and I can only say to you, Jim and I knew each other for about 35 years. There were never harsh words (even during my situation with Debbie), he was always straight forward and honest and a joy to be around. I have always respected him for what he was and always will be in my book. I feel your loss and I am just sorry I can't be with you on the day to morn his loss and celebrate his homecoming. If you should ever need me, I am here for you. Girls, (all three of you) and you new families, Congratulations Meredith), keep your chins up and take care. As you know, Jim was beloved by all his colleagues at PricewaterhouseCoopers. The sadness is almost tangible as the word has reached through our firm's network of Jim's many friends and clients whose lives were touched -- and enriched -- by the chance to know him.

You are very much in our thoughts and prayers as you cope with this grievous loss. Please know that we grieve with you for the loss of a wonderful friend and mentor.

Some have asked how we will go on without Jim, and the answer is "as he would want us to" -- remembering our responsibilities, taking care of one another, and above all, celebrating the joy of having been blessed by his presence and friendship.
