

James Robert Millar

August 23, 1921 - October 27, 2006

James Robert Millar, 85 of Roswell, GA., passed away on Monday, November 27, 2006. A native Atlantan and proud American, James was an Army veteran serving his country in the South Pacific during World War II. After retiring from running a successful business, James put his energies into travel, bronze collecting and philanthropy. Colonial Williamsburg, The Booth Museum in Cartersville, GA, Sculpture in the South in Summerville, SC and The Colquitt County Arts Center in Moultrie, GA were among the beneficiaries of his generosity. He will be remembered as a loving and giving husband, father, and grandfather. He is survived by Carolyn, his wife of 41 years, his six children, six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, November 30, 2006 at 10 AM in the chapel of St. George Village in Roswell, GA. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, Roswell/Alpharetta, 770-645-1414. www.northsidechapel.com
