“ I remember rubbing the Jade Buddha's belly with you Papa and how there was always talk of the painting of the girl for me and jewelry etc. that never meant anything to me! Maybe one day upstairs we can rub the Buddha's belly together and have some ravioli together. I love and have always missed you. I just wish I had the chance to tell you and Mama goodbye. You of all people understands what it means to be exiled from your family and the pain that comes with it. I'll see you in heaven!

“ Papa I'm sad that I couldn't say goodbye to you or Mama. I remember being a little girl in Ft. Lauderdale and you taking me to the movies and us holding hands and you singing You are the Sunshine of my Life! I felt so loved and will forever be heartbroken that I didn't live up to what you wanted me to be! I've been trying to find mom for years...if anyone reads this who knows Cindy Martin please tell her I'm sorry and I love her. 321-5912341
